RE: In Re: Southdown, Inc., Litigation

Dear Quintin and Craig:

My clients have informed me that we have not received a single technical document indicating how the matters giving rise to this litigation will be dealt with. I would greatly appreciate it if you could send to me a status report and technical documentation regarding how the landfill problem will be dealt with. I am sure you must have ample documentation from your consultants by this point in time.

Thank you very much for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Robert J. Shostak
